Mr. White: Hello my name is Lou Hilgaard and I am writing to congratulate you on your philosophical contribution to my understanding of the world situated as you have articulated in "Traditions of the Modern" and author of your PhD available on Overthrow.com. Your analysis of the roots of that book has certainly applied and in a way simplified my formerly hazy understanding of the writings of Julius Evola most of which I have read but understood to a much lesser degree prior to encountering your work.

I am not sure what I am prohibited from speaking in this letter so I will omit any reference to what has been called the movement and publication and to be addressed privately or data both of my and yourself and others. I am very interested in whatever work you might have forthcoming especially those which concentrate on the occult aspects of our world, Rosicrucianism and our contemporary situation as I find especially the subject matter related to the hidden forces of especial interest. There is a few you may be aware of a meeting called 'Day of Satan' that has much depleted content on this topic though I am uncertain how far what they claim can be believed much of it seems correct most analysis from my limited standpoint (they perspective)

I have been studying philosophy and unfortunately to a much lesser degree esotericism for 20+ years and simply want 'The Truth' with a capital T and from there an understanding of depth to dread. I have been in contact with those who are Evola scholars who state that "The Doctrine of Awakening" is the principle work of Evola that one should focus on as a source book of guidance along the path. I have read it years ago and will be re-reading it soon. It is my belief that the article in the UR group "Intro to magick" by Evola are also very significant in terms of understanding metaphysical reality. If I may ask: what are your thoughts on Miguel Serrano and Rene Guenon? Serrano I am not sure was an operative and Guenon came under Abrahamic influence which rendered his work more of a 'magician' orientated and away from the activated focus from both of the Evola.

If possible I would like to play a role in assisting to spread your work though I am unaware of how I might do so. please inform me of your status if you are willing and able as I am very interested in your situation.

I am uncertain what else I can say here or if this letter will even reach you or indeed if you are alive at all or perhaps (?) an agent yourself. It is different for people to gather evidence to confirm or deny ~~my~~ historical fact when it is largely concealed from them. Though your life and the surrounding events are of only recent memory I can only find a certain amount on you, without having a willingness to involve myself in going one of the Grey Sorcerer many people had contended you were of the tribe and an operative whose role was to eradicate violence with white advocacy. Of this I am uncertain or no evidence was presented merely an assertion.

One last question and I leave you with the best of luck in your quest: In "The capture of reason" and "tradition of the modern" you alluded to the whole of humanity having no future. I assume this to your current understanding? Are we doomed to be dragged down into the grave of the mundane, physical reality and have of course only to a 'spiritual' outcome? I know Nietzsche stated something in his work "Man: for the man to come" about the return to the Hyperborea ('inner earth'?) and the spiritual realm of the material. Any insight you would have on the subject would be given paramount thought by myself as your work suggest you are aware of a reality beyond the physical accessible only to those of a certain quality of mind. I myself have some experience of dark entities stalking on the periphery of my vision and at times sensation of being bombarded and assaulted by entities. What can be done about this I do not know.

I will leave you with this in hope 1) the letter will get to you and not be sabotaged in the mail and 2) be read by you in time that you may be able to read it and respond and that it will return to me without the hands of malevolent influence obstructing communications.
